

Peninsula Players Company 2010

Peninsula Players has been entertaining & exciting audiences in NE Wisconsin since 1935, when the company was founded by a brother & sister team, Caroline and Richard Fisher. Along the shores of Green Bay, the Fishers dreamed of an artistic community of actors, designers & technicians all focused on their craft while being surrounded by nature in a contemplative setting. Today, patrons stroll paths along the cedar-lined forest, visit the theater's outdoor beer garden & in the summer months, watch the sun beginning to set over the water before settling into their seats in the all-weather pavilion for the latest Players fare.

The Players open with a performance of Gérald Sibleyras' Heroes, June 15–July 4.

Three veterans of World War I plot their greatest adventure yet, to escape the veteran's hospital! Their wits may not be fully intact, but even in their autumn years they retain a zeal for life that may just get them past the front gates.

July 7–July 25, *Over the Tavern

“Over the Tavern” by Tom Dudzick will run from July 7–July 25. Raising four teenagers over a tavern in Buffalo, New York, in the 1950s is a challenge especially just before confirmation when the youngest, Rudy, starts to question the church & ruler-cracking Sister Clarissa.

July 28–August 15, *A Little Night Music

Vinkler will direct the multiple Tony Award-winning musical “A Little Night Music” with music & lyrics by Stephen Sondheim & book by Hugh Wheeler. This witty, elegant musical is a celebration of romance, a Valentine to Door County audiences, & features the song “Send in the Clowns.”

August 18–September 5, *Comic Potential

Alan Ayckbourn's sci-fi comedy.

September 8–October 17, *Panic

Joseph Goodrich's “Panic,” the 2008 winner of Mystery Writer's of America Edgar Award for Best Play, closes the Players' 75th season.
